VOLCANO HOUSE AFFAIRS.

Probable Reorganization and Change in Managers.

The Volcano House will take a fresh start on December 15th, when a special meeting of the Volcano House Company has been called in Honolulu for the purpose of reorganization. It is understood George Lycurus now owns a controlling interest in the company. New officers will be chosen, and a board of directors selected, agreeable to Mr. Lycurus.

The business will be done at a special meeting for the reason that there has been no regular meeting or annual meeting of the stockholders for ten years. In fact, the date on which annual meetings should be held is unknown, the by-laws and constitution of the company having been lost or destroyed.

Among other things that will be decided at this meeting will be the nature of extensive improvements. It is understood that Mr. Lycurus will take charge of the hotel personally early in the year. Special features of the management will also be determined at this meeting. It was thought the control of the Volcano House stock could be obtained at $1 per share for stock of a par value of $25. Some of the bigger stockholders have let loose at this figure, among them being L. A. Thurston and Peter Lee. But other stockholders refuse to let go and even shake their heads at offers of $2 per share.

In this connection it might be said that it is almost certain that St. Clair Bidgood, present manager of the Volcano House, will go to Haleiwa in place of Mr. Church. Mr. Bidgood has been offered the place and close friends of his say that he will accept.

Delightful Musical Program.

The members of the Piano Club were treated to an exceptionally fine program last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Severance, in Pueno. There was a good attendance and three additional members were added to the roll—Miss Florence Hill, Mrs. W. S. McLean and Miss Katherine Westervelt. Miss Esther Lyman rendered on the piano "Liebestraumerei" by Lichner, which was followed by a duet, the "Chaminade" by Mrs. Tracy and Mrs. Carl Smith. Katherine Westervelt played in a pleasing manner, a Hungarian melody, which was well received. Miss Lillinoi Hapai sang a pretty solo "The Ivy Leaf" and Mrs. C. E. Hapai responded with two vocal selections "I Love Thee" and "Du bist wie eine Blume" both of which were dainty and pleasing. Miss Potter executed with her usual fine style an Adagio selection from Beethoven. Mrs. J. T. Lewis rendered Zarembski's Polonaise, which is always a favorite, and later favored the meeting with Sinding's Spring Song. Miss Florence Hill made her debut as a member with a vocal solo, a "Spring Song" which was simple and sweet. Altogether a most pleasant afternoon was enjoyed and the next meeting of the Club will be announced later.

A JUROR MAKES A SCENE.

Spectacular Exhibition by a Juror in Bessley Case.

There were a number of spectacular incidents in the Bessley case, the most startling of which was a colloquy which took place Thursday afternoon, just before adjournment, between J. T. Stacker, a juror and C. M. LeBlond, counsel for the defendant. About 4:20 p. m. Deputy Attorney General Lightfoot moved for an adjournment until 10 o'clock Friday morning, giving as a reason the illness of Attorney LeBlond and a desire not to force an evening session. The Court ordered bailiff to adjourn court until the hour specified, when Juror Stacker called out: "I object. Some consideration should be shown to the jury. All the consideration so far has been shown to Mr. LeBlond."

The Court: "Will you be willing to come back at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning?"

Juror Stacker: "Yes, at eight o'clock."

Mr. LeBlond: "I would like to know what consideration Mr. LeBlond has received."

Juror Stacker: "Mr. LeBlond, the jury has been kept waiting two days for you, while you were —"

Here the Court interfered and stopped the colloquy, which threatened to become personal, and Mr. LeBlond closed the argument by saying: "I wish to note on the record the misconduct of Mr. Stacker." Court was then adjourned by the court clerk.
